

KREYSSIG'S BOOKS DOCTORED

Amount of His Shortage Not Yet Known.

A Detective Will Bring Him from Cheyenne.

A detective of Inspector McLaughlin's staff left New York this morning for Cheyenne, Wyoming, to bring back to this city A. H. Kreyssig, the missing cashier and confidential clerk of the Textile Publishing Company, at 75 Walker street.

Charles T. Root, the President of the company, said this morning that it would be impossible for him to state the amount of the shortage in Kreyssig's accounts until the books had been thoroughly gone over. The books, he said, had been so skillfully doctored that only the closest examination could reveal the amount of the Company's loss, but he was inclined to think the sum amounted to $7,000 or $8,000.

Kreyssig, he said, was a German, who came to this country when quite young. He had been employed by the Company about two years, and entered its employ with no recommendation. He was under bonds, but the bonds were not nearly so large as the amount of his delinquency. Kreyssig, Mr. Root said, is about twenty-eight years old, and married. He lived somewhere in the suburbs, just where Mr. Root could not say, and appeared to be a thoroughly respectable man. On April 25 he disappeared, and it was not until he had gone that irregularities in his books were discovered. The irregularities extended over a period of between one and two years. He was indicted shortly after his disappearance.

Kreyssig's arrest followed the receipt of a letter from Inspector McLaughlin to the Chief of Police at Denver, where Kreyssig had been located and was said to be spending money freely. When the Inspector's letter arrived at Denver Kreyssig had left the city, and was traced to Cheyenne, where he was arrested.

SAID HIS LAST GOOD-BY.

Plunged Into East River in a Night Watchman's Presence.

About 5 o'clock this morning a stranger walked past Night Watchman John Stevenson on the dock at the foot of Market street, suddenly stopped, looked quickly about him to see that no one else was near, and then, hastily saying "Good-by, old man," to the unsuspecting sentry plunged headlong into East River.

Watchman Stevenson notified the police of the Madison street station, and two officers were sent to the spot to rescue the would-be suicide, or if he had drowned to recover the body. They accomplished the latter part of their instructions.

A short distance from where the man sprang from the dock his lifeless body was found. The corpse was taken to Madison street station-house. No money was found in the clothes nor anything to establish the identity of the man.

The suicide was well dressed, about twenty-five years old and five feet seven inches tall. At 6 o'clock this morning the body was sent to the morgue, and the Police Department were making efforts to learn who the man was.

TO SCARE HER HUSBAND.

Mrs. Clifford Denies that She Attempted Suicide.

Mrs. Lillie Clifford, the young woman who was taken to Bellevue Hospital last night, supposed to be suffering from a dose of carbolic acid, taken with suicidal intent, will probably get well. Her husband, Joseph Clifford, a forty-two-year-old man, about twenty-one years old, called at the hospital this morning to see his wife.

She told him that she had not taken the carbolic acid intentionally. Dr. Lanyon, in whose ward she was in the hospital, could detect no signs of carbolic acid on her patient, although she insisted that she swallowed some.

Clifford and his wife have only been married a month. She is only seventeen years old. Clifford and his wife went to board at 240 West Thirtieth street when they got married. He makes $10 a week driving a cart.

He always treated his wife well, he says, never heard her complain and doesn't know why she should want to end her life. It is thought, however, that the young woman was not satisfied with her surroundings after she got married.

Clifford took his wife to make a call last evening on some friends. It is said that something occurred there that made her jealous, and she left and went home. She sent out and bought a pocket-book and carried it to the laundry.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
